Our 80-pack sanitizing wipes go wherever you go. Keep a pack in your purse and car, so you can cleanse your hands on-the go, when soap and water are not available. Take these handy wipes on all of your errands. They're ideal for use on public transportation, at the market, gym, school, restaurants, and at all public places. AIRE premium, plant-based hand sanitizing wipes are 100% free from parabens, sulfates, phthalates, petroleum or SLS, and are 100% vegan and cruelty-free. They help keep your hands healthy and protected, with gentle ingredients and no harsh chemicals that irritate skin. Our soothing formula is infused with naturally emollient ingredients to nourish all skin types and help lock in moisture to help ease discomfort from dry, sensitive skin.
